

“What are Friends For”

Rosemary Sazonoff Writing Contest: February 1 - February 29

Sponsored by the Friends of the Library, the 16th Annual Creative Writing Contest welcomes stories, poems, or essays about friendship. The contest honors the memory of Library trustee, community activist, and journalist Rosemary Sazonoff. Young writers in grades 2-8 are encouraged to participate.

For Kids: Children may submit short, unpublished pieces of creative writing on the theme “What are Friends For?” This theme includes any story from a family or friend, a story from your own life, fiction, etc. Youth Services will celebrate all children who participate at a reception at the Library on Saturday, March 12, 2012 where the winners in each category will be announced, receive their prizes and have a chance to read their entries.

To be eligible, please turn in your submission by February 29, 2012. Please do NOT put any personal information on the essay itself. Use the space provided below.
