Take the Road Less Traveled with a Special Summer Reading Program

From the Director

Dearest gentle readers, did you miss me?

Some of our readers may recognize my opening line from Lady Whistledown's writing that features prominently in the Netflix series Bridgerton. I have used these past winter months and rainy spring months to catch up on shows like Bridgerton. But, now, oh, the promise of warm weather and sunshine is what is getting me outside. Reading outside makes me outdoorsy!

This issue features all of our exciting activities around this year's Summer Reading Program theme, "Read Beyond the Beaten Path." Our amazing staff has developed creative and engaging programs for all ages. A 2021 study found that students lost between 17-34% of their learning from the previous year over the summer. Our summer program encourages students to keep reading! And, remember that listening to an audiobook is also reading.

Our youngest patrons don't get to have all the fun. Adults can participate in our year long program, Read Around the World. We have monthly reading challenges based on the world's 24 time zones. Our Adult Services staff have created reading lists that you can find on our website or at our service points.

I try to be outside as much as possible in the summer months. This upcoming summer will be no exception. My family has some vacations planned that include hiking, and even camping! We will, of course, be reading beyond the beaten path.

Amy Falasz-Peterson, Library Director

Read Beyond the Beaten Path: Adventure, Discovery and New Horizons

Experience the joy that awaits when you travel with a book down a road not yet taken. Discover the exhilaration of visiting a world full of new ideas, sounds, traditions and amazing people. Presented with support from the Friends of the Deerfield Public Library.

How to sign up for Children's and Teen Summer Reading Program?

Register online or at the Library any time on or after June 4.

Children's Summer Reading Program

June 4 – July 30

Birth-Grade 5

Challenge yourself this summer by participating in our "Read Beyond the Beaten Path" Summer Reading Program! Track your reading and complete fun activities to enter weekly drawings and finish the program. All children who complete the program will receive a free book and an entry into our grand prize drawing! Any children who finish the Summer Reading Program after it officially ends on July 30 will receive a book while supplies last. Be sure to check out all of the Library's exciting activities throughout the summer!

Grand Prize Drawing Options:

Birth-PreK: Gift Certificate to the Deerfield Park District, Membership to the Peggy Notebaert Museum, or Membership to the Brookfield Zoo.

Grades K-5: iPad, Nintendo Switch, or Membership to the Brookfield Zoo.

Teen Summer Reading Program

June 4 – July 30

Teens entering Grades 6-12

Calling all teens! You have been challenged this summer to participate in our "Read Beyond the Beaten Path" Summer Reading Program! Whether it's reading a book, attending a program, or exploring the great outdoors, it all counts! Participants will be entered into drawings for a variety of prizes, and one grand prize winner will have the choice between a Nintendo Switch, an iPad, or a VISA gift card. All teens who complete the program will also receive a free book!

Adults: Read Around the World Challenge

Hop on board to the year-long challenge and see how far you can travel without ever leaving home. Monthly reading challenges are based on the world's 24 time zones. Visit the website or Adult Reference Desk for details.

Summer Reading Yard Signs (Free!)

We invite you to brighten your lawn or front window with a "Read Beyond the Beaten Path" yard sign. Share the excitement of this year's Summer Reading Program, a summer full of great reads and fun programs. Signs will be available, while supplies last, beginning Thursday, May 12. You can pluck one from the front lawn (Waukegan Rd.) or pick one up inside the Library during open hours.

QUEER poem-a-day

DEERFIELD PUBLIC LIBRARY
PODCAST

Join us for year two of Queer Poem-a-Day, a special daily podcast series for Pride Month, featuring a recording of a poem written and read by a contemporary LGBTQIA+ poet for each day of June.

Exclusive to the Deerfield Public Library Podcast (deerfieldlibrary.org/podcast), this series was very popular last year and attracted coverage from WBEZ and PEN America. Subscribe to our podcast to get another month of daily poems from some of the leading poets today and celebrate queer poetry!

Find out more about participating poets and read and hear their poems at deerfieldlibrary.org/queerpoemaday. Queer Poem-a-Day is directed by poet and educator Lisa Hiton, and Dylan Zavagno, Adult Services Coordinator at DPL.

Presented with support from the Deerfield Fine Arts Commission and the Friends of the Deerfield Public Library.

Must See DPL TV

Did you know that one of the hottest video streaming services is free and available to anyone? The headquarters for the service is right here in Deerfield. Introducing, the entertaining and informative all-ages DPL TV!

Maybe you are already one of the viewers, as the DPL TV audience is growing exponentially:

	2022 (3 mo.)	2021 (12 mo.)
Video views:	68,157	77,535
Hours viewed:	13,054	6,110

Tune in at YouTube.com/DeerfieldLibrary. Click on "Playlists" for an easy way to get familiar with the different video categories. Following are a few examples:

Recorded Programs

This group is primarily recordings of adult programs, but might also be of interest to Teens. One of our most popular recent programs, "Remaining Artifacts from the White City: The 1893 Columbian Exposition," already has 62,000 views.

Our cooking programs have been a hit, as viewers have enjoyed following along with the chefs and bakers while working in their own kitchens. The virtual crafts programs have also been very popular. We provide supply kits for pickup ahead of time. Speaking of video streaming, be sure to check out the "Cut the Cable" program.

Youth Videos

This bundle includes programs for ages Birth-10, such as magic tricks, science programs, and many more "how-to" activities. For the under-5 crowd, we have engaging Baby Bytes, Rhyme Time, and other storytimes. Looking for easy, at-home activities to encourage your child in science, technology, engineering, arts, and math? Find them here in one of our new Parent Cafe videos.

eTutor

Visit here for the best of instructional videos for accessing e-books and audiobooks, how to connect to a WiFi hotspot, setting up a Roku, viewing digital magazines, and much more! Need help with the Libby app? Join the 29,000+ viewers that have learned how to set up and use the user-friendly app for accessing our digital book collection. We also have videos for using our MorningStar and Valueline databases.

Additional playlists include instructions for select MakerSpace equipment, using your DPL account, and building youth literacy. Take a tour of DPL TV for a full overview of the videos available to you anytime. YouTube.com/DeerfieldLibrary

Friends of the Deerfield Public Library

The Friends of the Deerfield Public Library is celebrating our 15th anniversary!

Please join us on Sunday, August 14 from 2:00-4:00 p.m. on the main level for refreshments, prizes, and a commemoration of the Friends' mission – helping libraries change lives!

Want to do your part to help expand services and programming at the library? Becoming a member of the Friends is the best way to offer your support. We've recently helped to fund projects such as Queer Poem-a-Day, the MakerSpace, and the upcoming Summer Reading Program. More projects are on the way, but we need your help! For more information, please visit our website.

Come shop at the best used book store in Deerfield! The Friends are constantly refreshing the options in our used book corner. Fiction, non-fiction, kids books, cookbooks, DVDs – we have it all! Nearly all proceeds from sales are directed back to library services. Our next meeting will be June 27 at 7:00 p.m. in the library – all community members are welcome!
